

You can apply for a caste certificate online through your state's official website. You can also visit a Tehsildar's office in person to apply.

Online application process

1. Go to the official website of the caste certificate issuing authority in your state.
2. Find the "Caste Validity Certificate" link and click on it.
3. Register on the website by filling in the required details.

In-person application process

1. Visit the Tehsildar's office on a working day. [2]
2. Submit the application form along with the required documents. [2, 3]
3. Get a receipt for the application. [2]
4. Submit a certificate from the Gram Pradhan or Ward member along with two witnesses who can certify your caste. [2]
5. Submit an affidavit about your caste and creamy layer (if you are OBC). [2]

Documents required for caste certificate [3]

- PAN card
- Passport
- RSBY card
- MNREGA job card
- Driver's license
- Photo of the applicant
- Identity card issued by a government or semi-government organization

Caste certificate information [4, 5]

The caste certificate includes the applicant's permanent address, date of birth, birthplace, caste, and sub-caste. [4, 5]

Generative AI is experimental.

[1] <https://vakilsearch.com/caste-certificate>

[2]

<https://www.advocatekhoj.com/library/legalforms/howdoi/stateprocedures/uttarcastecert.php>

[3]

https://aaplesarkar.mahaonline.gov.in/en/Login/Certificate_Documents?ServiceId=1284

[4] <https://www.adityabirlacapital.com/abc-of-money/caste-certificate>

[5]

<https://www.godigit.com/life-insurance/caste-certificate/how-to-fill-caste-certificate-application-form>